Fire Ant Festival 2022
Arts Contest Application

You are invited to submit up to three pieces of original artwork for judging by an art professional. Entries may be in the following mediums: oil, watercolor, acrylic, charcoal, pen, or pencil. The committee reserves the right to reject any work that does not reflect the spirit of a community event or is not original to the artist.

Waiver and Release

I certify that the piece of art I am entering in the contest is my work and has been completed by me during the last three years. The artwork has never been shown in the Fire Ant Festival before.

I have been informed that the piece of art I am submitting will be on display in the Victoria Evans Memorial Library in Ashburn, Georgia. The art will remain in the library and be judged. During the Fire Ant Festival, the art will be moved to a location near the festival.

The utmost care will be taken with each artist's work. However, this release statement must be signed before artwork is hung. The undersigned hereby releases, and forever discharges, and holds harmless the Coastal Plains Regional Library system, the Victoria Evans Memorial Library, the City of Ashburn, Turner County, the Turner County School system, and the Fire Ant Festival Committee of and from any and all manner of actions, suits, damages, or claims whatsoever arising from any loss or damage to the property of the undersigned while in their possession or supervision.
